GUIDELINES TO PARTICIPATE IN THE 10th STONE EXPO SERBIA, BELGRADE 18 – 21 APRIL 2018

1. An exhibitor is a legal person who deals with design, investigation, exploitation, processing and trading of stone, manufacturing and trading of machines, tools and chemicals for stone protection and its restoring, and offering services within the abovementioned industry.
2. Associations "Kamena Kolonija" provides an application form. Application form must be filled in legibly, signed by the officer in charge and stamped by the exhibitor and then returned to the organization "Kamena Kolonija" for registration and validation. Upon certification, a copy of the application form is given to the exhibitor together with an estimate of everything that has been indicated within the application. This application is effective when it has been confirmed by the event organizer. If the exhibitor has no written complaints within 5 days of the confirmation, the application form therefore becomes a contract between "Kamena Kolonija" and the exhibitor.
3. 15 days prior to the opening of the expo, the exhibitor must provide the organizer with the precise details concerning their sale sectors and services. The organizer holds the right to take the necessary measures including ban of displaying and removal of the abovementioned products from the exhibition location should these not be in accordance with the exhibitor's specifications. In that case, the organizer would cancel the contract and remove the exhibitor's products from the exhibition location at the expense of the exhibitor.
4. The exhibitor must pay the non-refundable 50% of the amount, within 5 days of the receipt of the estimate. The balance is paid not later than 30 days prior to the commencement of the expo. After the expo, the exhibitor is issued with a final invoice outlining total costs of all services used and a tax bill which must be paid within the specified time frame. Should the exhibitor not pay the amount specified in the invoice within the specified time frame, they would be obliged to pay the default interest. "Kamena Kolonija" holds the right to amend the pricing in accordance with the increase of retail prices.
5. If the exhibitor decides to cancel the agreed exhibition, they are required to pay following costs:
 - Application form and formal catalogue entry – if the exhibition is cancelled within 10 days after the accepted agreement
 - 50% of the total cost of the ordered services – if the exhibition is cancelled within 15 days before the event commences
 - 100% of the cost of the ordered services – if the exhibition is cancelled within less than 15 days before the event commencesA written cancellation must be provided.
Cancellation of agreement is considered the day when the cancellation letter is received.
6. The exhibitor must apply for the direct sale at the expo. They guarantee the trafficking of goods and services in accordance with the regulatory rules.
7. The exhibitor must respect the opening and closing times of the expo and the product stand in particular must be functional until the end of the event. The exhibitor will be able to equip the stand 3 days before the opening of the expo as well as to remove their products 2 days upon closure.
8. All exhibitor's products and possessions must be insured against theft, damages etc. However, should they not be insured, the exhibitor will be responsible for the disappearance and damage of products or any other possessions.
9. Exhibitor will be granted (without reimbursement) at least 2 and at the most 5 exhibition passes, depending on the size of the leased space at the expo. Should the exhibitor be in need of more passes, they would be charged using the organizer's price list. The exhibitors can enjoy free parking. "Kamena Kolonija" is publishing a formal catalogue and a CD. Copy of the catalogue and the CD will be given to each exhibitor for free.
10. The organizer holds the right to cancel and delay the event, whereby registered exhibitors would be informed in writing at least 15 days before the commencement of the expo.
11. Trade Court in Belgrade is authorized for all potential lawsuits between "Kamena Kolonija" and the exhibitor.
